.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a Writ of Mandamus, or any other appropriate Writ, order or direction, declaring that the action of respondents inerecting the electric transformer just opposite to the house of the petitioner situated at Door No.3/102, Nawabpet, Nellore Town, Nellore District as illegal and arbitrary and direct the respondents to shift the electric transformer from the above place to any other safe place.

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.P.RAVI KIRAN

Counsel for the Respondents: SMT.M.VINOBHA DEVI (SC FOR A.P.S.P.D.C.L)

The Court made the following :

ORDER:

The petitioner claims to be a resident of Nawabpet, Nellore District and residing at D.No.3/102, Nawabpet. His case is that the respondents have erected a transformer just opposite his house within 4 feet from the main door of his house, causing lot of inconvenience to the family members of the petitioner. In the circumstances, he made a complaint to the respondents on 12-08-2004. The grievance of the petitioner is that the respondents failed to consider the objections raised by him in his representation but taking steps to commission the transformer.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned standing counsel appearing for the respondents, without expressing any opinion on the allegations made by the petitioner, I deem it appropriate to dispose of the writ petition with a direction to the respondents to consider the representation made by the petitioner dated 12-08-2004 and to pass appropriate orders in accordance with law within a period of one week from the date of receipt of this order.

Accordingly, the writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
